16. Abstracts of Star Chamber proceedings relating to Sussex, Henry VII to Philip and Mary Mundy, P. D. 1913

<http://www.archive.org/details/abstractsofstarc00greauoft>

p. 20

Dispute between Robert Duffeld and John Drewe concerning a messuage and land etc in Tabilherst in the parish of East Grinstead. Witnesses were called Thursday before St Bartholomew, 25 Henry VIII [21 August 1533; year given as 1534 in published abstract]. Part of the dispute turned on whether the lands had been entailed within the Drewe family.

p. 23

William Arnold, aged 60, deposes similarly, and states that Richard Drewe dwelled "with the Lord Dacre of the South," being in his service, and that the said Lord desired the said Thomas, father to the said Richard, to give the same Richard some of the said lands to live by, whereupon the said Thomas desired respite to make the said Lord answer, and went to one Mr. Thomas Lewkenor of Brambilitie to have his advice, and Mr. Lewkenor said he could not make him any of the Tabilherst land but he must needs sue a recovery which would be both chargeable in law and conscience, and that, the said Thomas said he would never do. Deponent therefore believes that Mr. Lewkenor "knew well that Tabelherst land stood intayled." He further deposes that he has heard one Blaker of Preston, now deceased, say that he held a deed of intail in his custody of Tabilherst lands, which deed he delivered to Sir Edward Bray, Knight, supposing it concerned lands which he, Blaker, sold to Sir Edward.* Touching the alleged riotous entry deponent

* From a rental of the manor of Preston, undated, but apparently not later than 1550, in the possession of Mrs. Thomas-Stanford, the lady of the manor, it appears that Richard Elryngton acquired from Sir Edward Bray, Knt., by deed dated 10 May 1544 (inter alia), a freehold messuage or tenement called Blakers in Bishop's Preston.

p. 24

Depositions of Thomas Partriche, aged 60, George Payne, aged 35, John Ditlyng, aged 50, and Robert Harman, aged 40, which last deposes that one John Blaker the younger, son of Blaker of Preston, shewed him that his father had delivered a deed of entail of the said

p. 25

lands to Sir Edward Bray, Knight, and the same Sir Edward afterwards delivered the said deed to one James Coole, which had married the widow of Robert Drewe, one of the sons of Thomas Drewe.

27. An abstract of the court rolls of the manor of Preston (Preston Episcopi)
Thomas-Stanford, C. 1921

[Introduction says that the manor was held by the bishops of Chichester from the time of Domesday until it passed to the Crown in 1559.

No pre-Elizabethan court rolls known, though a search has been made in the diocesan muniments.

A few other miscellaneous pre-Elizabethan manorial records survive.

In this volume are printed abstracts of the surviving court rolls to 1700.

Elizabethan rolls from PRO L.R. Court Rolls, 115/5, and British Museum Add. Rolls 32,354-8, and others in the possession of the editor (Charles Thomas-Stanford) from 1628-1700.

The rolls at the PRO are:

23 Sept 10 Elizabeth [1568] - 27 March 14 Elizabeth [1572]

23 September - 13 April 21 Elizabeth [both 1579; wrong way round?]

24 September 24 Elizabeth [1582] - 2 April 26 Elizabeth [1584]

21 September 29 Elizabeth [1587] - 29 March 34 Elizabeth [1592]

[Looking at the text, the other ones printed, presumably from the British Museum, appear to be:

3 Oct 4 Elizabeth [1562] - 5 April 10 Elizabeth [1568]

21 September 16 Elizabeth [1574] - 23 September 20 Elizabeth [1578]

24 September 27 Elizabeth [1585] - 28 March 28 Elizabeth [1586]

20 July 34 Elizabeth [1592], 4 October 37 Elizabeth [1595], 1 April 38 Elizabeth [1596]

But these ranges aren't necessarily complete.]

The earliest rental in the editor's possession from 1551-2 has been printed in Brighton and Hove Archaeologist 1914, p. 29 seq.

A very detailed survey from 6 James I is too voluminous to include here, but a transcript by Salzman has been deposited in Brighton Public Library.]
