THE FOLLOWING IS A

List of the Subscribers (One Guinea each) for the purchase of a handsome Silver Tureen,

Which was Presented to JOHN ELLMAN, Esq. in 1829,

As a token of sincere regard and as a tribute of his great merit, on his retiring from Glynde Farn, in which for more than half a century he had devoted himself to the interest of Agriculture; especially in improving and extending throughout the British Empire the breed of South-down Sheep, and for his much-admired Conduct to his Labourers.

A Portrait, painted by Lonsdale, of this gentleman was likewise presented to his family.

N.B. Proof impressions of the engraved Portrait on large paper, price 7s. 6d. may be had of J. Baxter, Lewes.
