The value of ale-licenses at Brighton may be judged of when we state, that, on Monday last<sup>14</sup>, the High Constable informed the Magistrates he had been offered by one person 500l. and by another 400l. for the successful exertion of his interest in procuring licenses for two houses belonging to the individuals alluded to. — Mr. E. Blaker, churchwarden, declared that 500l. had also been offered to him on a similar condition.
