Title: The Church Bells of Sussex. By Amherst Daniel-Tyssen, of Merton College, Oxford, Esq., 1864, Lewes, 165

1687

Kingston

...

On most of William Hull's bells after 1683, the initials I. H. occur. These are, of course, the initials of his son John Hull, mentioned in his will. There is also one bell made, I believe, by John Hull, after his father's death. It is at Kingston, and the inscription is, "Edward Blaker, Chvrch Warden, 1687." It is in the same type as William Hull's bells, but differs from them in one or two minor particulars of arrangement.
