

Yorkshire: Blaker extracts from online sources

(1) The Yorkshire Archaeological and Topographical Journal, volume 6 (1881), page 444 (Crigleston)

<https://books.google.com/books?id=FXAMB7qKL-QC&vq=Grigleston&pg=RA2-PA444>

Inquisition taken at Wakefield 27 March 19 Ed. 4 (1479-80).

Robert Blaker held diuers Lands called Blaker in Crigleston with th'appurt' in Sandall by soccage . . [Nil.]

(2) Charles Travis Clay, ed., "Early Yorkshire Charters", volume 8, page 210 (1949)

<https://archive.org/details/YASES6/page/210/mode/2up>

See footnote 7 for comments on Blacker and the Blacker family

(3) Timeline of Events of the Blacker Family - Lrwaite.net

www.lrwaite.net/blacker_wilkes/blacker_name_timeline.htm

[no longer online]

1330, Hamlets in the Darton and Darfield parishes in Yorkshire were called Blacker.

1331, August 4, Thomas Blacker licensed of "certain land" at Normanton, ...

(4) List of Yorkshire dialect words of Old Norse origin - The Viking

http://www.viking.no/e/england/yorkshire_norse.htm

Yorkshire dialect word blake

Generally accepted meaning blake, sallow, yellow (usually in relation to someone's complexion)

Old Norse source word bleikr.

(5) William Farrer, ed., "Early Yorkshire Charters", volume 3 (1916), page xxvii

<https://archive.org/details/earlyyorkshirech03farruoft/page/n27/mode/2up?q=Blacker>

List of contents: several 12th-century references to land in Blacker

(6) Introduction - Carrick Blacker

www.alanblacker.com/introduction.htm

[no longer online]

A HISTORY of THE FAMILY of BLACKER OF CARRICKBLACKER IN IRELAND In Yorkshire they survived even longer, and it was the Danes who rose and ...

(7) William Brown, "Yorkshire Deeds" (Yorkshire Archaeological Society Record Series, volume 39, 1909), page 235

Page 63

<https://archive.org/details/YASRS039/page/62/mode/2up>

Grant to Robert de Blacker of a messuage in Dodworth [after 1290].

Pages 183, 184

<https://archive.org/details/YASRS039/page/182/mode/2up>

Undated charters witnessed by Henry de Blaker or Blacker, and a grant dated 1334-5 by Henry, son and heir of William de Blakker; land in Worsborough

(8) George Redmonds, Turi King and David Hey, "Surnames, DNA, and Family History", pages 139, 140 (2011)

<https://archive.org/details/surnames-dna-and-f...-by-george-redmonds-tur...-z-lib.or/page/139/mode/2up>

Section on the surname "Blacker", discussing geographical distribution and possible derivations.

(9) Distribution of the name "Blaker" in the UK - dynastree.co.uk

www.dynastree.co.uk/maps/detail/blaker.html

[no longer online]

20+ items - The surname map shows the distribution of the name Blaker in ...

East Sussex is the 2617. most common name - 20 persons.

West Yorkshire is the 7676. most common name - 10 person

(10) Transported Convicts-172 | Old British News Research 1750-1950

www.oldbritishnews.com/transported-convicts/transported_convicts-172/

[no longer online]

... "Convicted at Yorkshire, Wakefield General Quarter Sessions for a term of 14 years. "Grace Blaker, one of 101 convicts transported on the Friendship, June ...

(11) Lionel Charlton, "The History of Whitby, and of Whitby Abbey", page 197 (1779)

<https://books.google.co.uk/books?id=25dbAAAAQAAJ&pg=PA197>

Grant by Walter, son of Godfride, son of Blaker [1223-1244]